

Trap 10 is a third party supplied component, basic instructions for fitting are included on packaging as below.

The fitting must be as below due to internal bladder that prevents backflow.

All parts are push fit sealed by O rings.

There is some flexibility in the body, however , if over extended leaks may occur.

